

Mag. iur. Teresa-Maria Hutle-Fritzsche, LL.M.

Teresa Hutle-Fritzsche has been working with the law firm Seeger Frick & Partner AG since July 2018. She studied law at the University of Vienna, Austria, where she obtained her Master degree in Law (Mag. iur.). Thereafter she completed the internship at court at the Higher Regional Court in Vienna. After working for one and a half year as freelancer at the General Settlement Funds for Victims of National Socialism she continued her studies at the University of Lausanne, where she obtained in 2010 an additional Master degree (LL.M) in International and European Economic and Commercial Law. Back in Austria, she completed her qualification as a lawyer by working inter alia for two of the leading commercial law firms in Vienna. In 2014 she passed the bar exam at the Higher Regional Court in Vienna. Subsequently she worked for another Liechtenstein law firm until her engagement for Seeger Frick & Partner AG.

Mrs Hutle-Fritzsche specialised in Vienna in banking, financing and capital markets. Additionally she gained experience in medical law, constitutional law, European law, international law and corporate law. In Liechtenstein she also obtained knowledge in local corporate law, financial market law and in the Common Reporting Standard.
