

Dr. Fabian Rischka, LL.M

Fabian Rischka joined the law firm Seeger Frick & Partner in October 2018, initially as a practicing European lawyer with an Austrian license and meanwhile as a Liechtenstein lawyer. He studied law at the University of Salzburg, where he was awarded the academic degree Mag. iur. in 2008 and the academic degree Dr. iur. in 2010. Subsequently, he completed the master's program European and International Business Law at the University of Vienna, where he was awarded the academic degree Master of Law LL.M. in 2013. In 2012, he passed the Austrian bar exam at the Higher Regional Court of Linz with very good results. Before joining our law firm, he worked as a lawyer in a commercial law firm in Salzburg and Vienna. In addition, Fabian Rischka has been working as a Liechtenstein notary since 2021.
